

Start Your Business Career in The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences!

Start your business career in The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences (SBS)! Our exceptional academic majors put you on your path, building career skills employers value. SBS graduates work at leading companies like Amazon, Fidelity, Oracle, JPMorgan Chase, Dell Technologies, Wayfair, State Street, and many more. Select an SBS major of interest and build professional skills through leadership opportunities, internships, and SBS College to Careers.

Our integrated approach develops you into a well-rounded professional. Any SBS major can lead to a business career, but explore these for direct connections to business and management:
